Employee Responsibilities:

Schedule of Classes:

Employees may schedule up to six (6) hours of coursework each semester with the approval of their immediate supervisor. So as not to interfere with the performance of assigned duties, employees are encouraged to choose evening, on-line or day courses held during their normal lunch period. Courses taken during normal working hours will require supervisory approval. Any time missed from regularly scheduled work hours to attend a class shall be made up during the same workweek, or reported to Human Resources as vacation time.

An employee desiring to enroll in more than six (6) semester hours may request permission in writing from his or her supervisor and from the Vice President over their department. All approvals must be obtained in advance of the beginning of the semester.

Restrictions:

Repeat courses are not eligible for a tuition discount for employees, spouse, or children.

Should an employee, spouse, or their children misrepresent any of the required information, the employee will be responsible for the repayment of benefits received. In addition, disciplinary action up to and including termination may result. Such termination would not remove the repayment responsibility.
